

CHEF'S TOYBOX

EXOTIC TASTY FAVORITES

Week of October 19th, 2020

Local Honeycrisp Apples

101051 | case

These Georgia Grown Honeycrisp Apples from Fitzgerald Fruit Farms are crisp, sweet, and seasonal. Perfect for adding to salads, cheese boards, baking, or snacking.

Long Island Cheese Pumpkin

100681 | case

Also known as the Cinderella Squash, the Long Island Cheese Squash is perfect for making pumpkin pie. This unique variety is named for its growing region and resemblance to a wheel of cheese.

Organic Drinking Coconut w/ Straw

100075 | 6ct

These drinking coconuts are perfect for your bar menus! Each is ready to eat or drink and comes with a straw.

Local Fuyu Persimmons

100023 | flat

Tomato-shaped Fuyu Persimmons can be enjoyed crisp like apples. Generally, these persimmons are at their best when least tampered with, as their unusual texture and delicate flavor are easily obscured.

Blue Hubbard Squash

400049 | case

Blue Hubbard is an heirloom squash variety in the family of pumpkins and gourds. Cook and add to raviolis, pastas, and other fall-inspired dishes.

Local White Mini "Casparita" Pumpkins

100664 | case

Used mainly for decoration purposes, these mini white pumpkins are great for creating fall displays or center pieces at your restaurant. These can also be stuffed and used as dishes for sweet and savory applications.

Meyer Lemons

100274 | case

Botanists believe a Meyer Lemon is a cross between a regular lemon and either an orange or a mandarin. Meyer Lemons are used for their fragrant zest and juice, which is sweeter than most other lemon varieties.

Romanesco Broccoli

500046 | case

Romanesco has a nutty, rich flavor superior to that of other Cauliflowers. It has wonderful flavor but it is beautiful, too! Each complex, symmetrical head features whorls of pointy, green florets that look like little seashells.

Mini Pumpkins

100663 | 30ct

These festive mini pumpkins can be used for fall decorations, serving bowls, or cooked applications like roasting or baking. Add to your menu or use to make a seasonal display.

Local Corno di Torro Peppers

999002 | case

The Corno di Torro Chile Pepper is mild Italian roasting pepper. They can be used in both cooked and raw applications and contribute a mild, sweet flavor and are commonly added to sauces.