VEGETABLE	SOURCE	MARKET INFORMATION
Asparagus	Peru, Mexico	The market is coming down as volume continues to improve from Mexico and Peru. Quality is good to very good.
Beans—Green	Mexico, TX, FL, TN, VA, GA	Bean supply and quality are good, and the market is weak. New GA beans have started, and other areas are still producing.
Broccoli ALERT	CA, Mexico	Quality is fair with brown bead and scoreable hollow core. Supplies are short, and markets are active for both broccoli and broccolini. The market is expected to get better and then tighten again. Expect volatility with these markets for the next 2-3 weeks.
Cabbage	CA, Mexico, FL	The market is steady on both coasts.
Carrots	CA	Steady quality and supply, no major concerns.
Cauliflower	CA	Quality is fair to good with occasional yellowing and light mold present. The market is stronger this week as 9cts are very tight with 12cts average at best. Field reports next week will be light.
Celery	CA, MI	Quality is improved, with occasional light insect damage and inconsistent sizing. Good supply continues to meet all demand.
Corn	Mexico, FL, CA	The CA market remains active and supplies short.
Cucumbers	Mexico, FL, Honduras	Supplies are good in the East from multiple areas. Limited supplies are expected from Mexico due to Hurricane Lorena.
Eggplant	Mexico, CA, FL	Supplies are good and the market is steady.
Garlic	CA, Europe, Asia, Mexico	CA continues its harvest of the new crop. The mild weather in the Central Valley is helping those efforts.
Herbs	Mexico, USA, Canada	The market is steady with good volume and moderate demand.
Lettuce—Iceberg, Leaf, and Romaine	CA	Markets remain unsettled. High temps may affect quality and availability in the coming weeks. Iceberg: Quality is poor to fair, with under-sizing, sunburn, seeder, mildew, and dehydration. Leaf: Quality is fair, with seeder, misshape, insect damage, and tip burn. Romaine: Poor to fair quality, with seeder, mildew, misshape, and insect damage.
Lettuce—Spring Mix	CA	Quality is poor to fair with seasonal-related issues of weak texture and mildew damage.
Mushrooms	USA, Canada, Mexico	The market remains steady for now.
Onions—Red, White, Yellow	ID, WA, CA	The market is steady with Super and Colossal sizes demanding premium on tighter supplies. Sporadic rain is expected which could slow harvest and put pressure on the market.
Onions—Green	Mexico	Quality is fair as high heat and humidity from monsoons and tropical storms affect production. Look for strong markets and limited availability in the coming weeks.

Peas—Snow & Snaps	Guatemala, CA	Volume is fair out of Guatemala. Markets are starting to rise as the Peruvian season is finished.
Peppers—Chiles	Mexico, FL	Supplies and quality are good as the market is steady in the East. Expect supplies and the market to firm up in the West due to Hurricane Lorena in Mexico.
Peppers— Green, Red & Yellow	Mexico, FL	Good supplies and quality in the East on green bells. Stronger demand in the West. Good supplies and quality on colored bells.
Potatoes—Russet	ID, WA, CO, WI	The market continues to come off but should start to stabilize. Sizing is running small as potatoes come in from the field.
Potatoes – Red, White & Yukon	WA, ID, CA	The market is steady on new crop, and quality is good.
Potatoes—Sweet	CA, MS, NC, LA	The harvest continues with good quality.
Spinach	CA	Quality is poor to fair, with seasonal issues of mechanical damage and oversizing.
Squash—Yellow & Zucchini	Mexico, CA, FL	Supplies are good in the East. Expect supplies to be delayed out of Mexico due to recent weather.
Tomatoes	VA, TN, CA, Mexico	East: VA's autumnal crop is producing steady round and grape volume but expected to finish in the next 2-3 weeks. TN volume is steady on romas and rounds. Quality is good. West: Northern CA round fruit is steady, but quality is inconsistent among growers. Mexican volume is steady on all varieties with no quality concerns noted.

FRUIT	SOURCE	MARKET INFORMATION
Apples	WA	The market is active on Fujis as there is a mix of old and new crop. The Granny Smith market will stabilize, and the Red Delicious harvest is starting in a light way.
Avocados	Mexico, CA, Peru, Dominican Republic	Mexico is the main supplier to the U.S. and currently harvesting two blooms with a good mix of sizes, as #2's are still fairly tight.
Bananas	Central America	The market is mostly steady, with good supplies and steady demand.
Berries—Blackberry, Blueberry, & Raspberry	Mexico, CA, OR, WA, BC, Peru	Blackberries: Supplies are down due to the production decline in CA. Blueberries: There are good supplies this week, but a supply gap is anticipated for about two weeks as we get through the transition from BC, WA, and OR into Peru, Mexico, and CA. Raspberries: Although the heat is causing a decline in production, volume from Santa Maria, Oxnard, and Mexico are improving.

Berries—Strawberry	CA	The high temps in Salinas and Watsonville, CA continue to affect production in the northern region. Ranches are pulling out of production resulting in a slight shortage of supplies. Supplies will be light for a few weeks or until volume in the southern regions improves. The strongest quality continues to be out of Oxnard, CA.
Citrus—Grapefruit	CA	The market is steady with good quality.
Citrus—Lemons	CA	The market is steady, but demand is strong on large sizes. Small sizes are becoming more readily available and quality is improving.
Citrus—Limes ALERT	Mexico, Columbia, Guatemala	The market continues to adjust as availability improves on 200s and larger. Additional inbounds from Colombia and Guatemala have contributed to the perception that market has peaked and will go back to normal.
Citrus—Oranges	CA	The market is increasing on small sizes but steady on large. Quality is fair to good with re-greening and scarring being seen. Navels are starting in November.
Grapes—Green & Red	CA	The market is steady with good supplies and quality on red grapes. Green grape supplies are lighter due to prior rain and quality is fair.
Kiwifruit	CA, Italy, Greece, Chile, New Zealand	Supplies are fair and the market is up. Chilean fruit is peaking on 30 and 33cts. The market is stronger and will continue to strengthen until CA starts in October.
Melons—Cantaloupe & Honeydew	AZ, Mexico, Guatemala, Honduras, Costa Rica	The cantaloupe market is steady, and quality is good. Honeydews are in good supply and quality, and the market is steady.
Melons—Watermelon	CA	Watermelons are in short supply as they near the end of the season. Quality is just fair.
Pears	WA, CA	New crop Bartletts have started. The crop is very clean with mostly #1 grade. Growers are also starting both Red and Bosc pears with a good mix of sizing.
Pineapple	Central America	The market is steady with good supplies and moderate demand. Quality is good to very good.
